Dear

As I explained in our phone conversation of February 10, 1978, Telepress is an independent, international news agency which produces documentaries for viewing in the Mid East and Europe.

We would very much like to do a documentary on the C.I.A., including an interview with Admiral Turner. We would like to focus on the changes the Admiral plans for the agency and how they might affect international operations.

We feel our audience would be very interested to hear from the director as well, and we sincerely hope that some time can be fit into his busy schedule.

As our office must plan production with a monthly commitment of films in mind, we would appreciate an early indication as to the possibility of your cooperation in this project. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Michael Loebel
